

IEEEXtreme is a global challenge in which teams of IEEE Student members, supported by an IEEE Student Branch, advised and proctored by an IEEE member, compete in a 24-hour time span against each other to solve a set of programming problems.

Applications are now open! Application Deadline 17th October 2016.

IEEEXtreme 10.0 will be held on 22 October 2016.

Apply at: <https://xtreme.vtools.ieee.org/>

ELIGIBILITY:

- All participants must be IEEE members (Student member or Graduate Student member only) to register and compete in the competition. IEEE membership numbers are required.
- Participants must compete as part of a team of up to three IEEE Student or Graduate Student members. Teams should only include a maximum of two Graduate Student members per team.
- Universities and colleges can have multiple teams.
- Each team must have a proctor to supervise during the 24-hour programming competition.
- Team members must solve and complete the problems without assistance from others.

What could you win?

- Fame: Competing in the world's most 'Xtreme' programming contest is a big deal. Participating means you get unlimited bragging rights.
- Fortune:
 - Grand prize is a trip to the IEEE conference of your choice, anywhere in the world.
 - Second place team members each receive the new Series 2 Apple Watch.
 - Third place team members each receive an upgraded Series 1 Apple Watch.
 - Fourth - Tenth place team members each receive a Bluetooth Wireless Speaker.
 - Top 100 place team members will receive an Xtreme merchandise bundle and special software gifts from competition partners.
